Part II of our current exhibition feature platinum glaze ceramics, performance art, dioramas, and more -- all intricately crafted via a mix of contemporary and modern Japanese are techniques.

ABOUT THE DJ

By day, Emi Yasukawa is a cross-border communications consultant. By night, she is DJ Em-Pulse, a Washington, D.C.-based DJ. Through her music, DJ Em-Pulse explores blending sounds from funk, disco, R&B, J-pop, and other varieties of pop music. She also infuses elements of her birthplace, Japan, and her upbringing in Tokyo. DJ Em-Pulse curates tracks that seamlessly incorporate urban noises and traditional sounds - like the shamisen - intertwined with '90s disco tunes, delivering a groove that compels you to move.
