APR 19, 2024

MON - FRI

9AM - 5PM

JICC

The Japan Information & Culture Center (JICC), Embassy of Japan, is excited to present Color Me Pink! This immersive exhibition invites you to step into the captivating world of cherry blossoms and celebrate the unshakeable friendship of Japan and the United States. Color Me Pink! is a collaboration brought to life by the Japan Information & Culture Center, Embassy of Japan, and the National Cherry Blossom Festival. Sponsored by Park West Gallery, the exhibition showcases eight original artworks inspired by the gifted cherry blossoms, intertwined with the National Cherry Blossom Festival's ongoing efforts to plant new trees.

Come learn about cherry blossoms in Japan and D.C., interact with our cascading kirigami display, and strike a pose in front of our one of a kind ukiyo-e-inspired hanami mural bringing a slice of Japan to the DC-area! 🌸

The exhibition is free and open to the public. The exhibition will run from March 22 through April 19 and will be open to the public during normal JICC hours, 9 AM to 5 PM, Monday through Friday.
