Our next J-Film is the touching coming-of-age story Nagi's Island.

Just off the coast of the beautiful Seto Inland Sea, Nagi (NIITSU Chise) is adapting to her new home on a small but idyllic island. Nagi is living with her mother and grandmother following her parents' divorce. Despite peaceful days spent swimming in the ocean and playing with her friends, Nagi is sometimes overcome by memories of her parents' marital problems and her father's alcoholism. As she battles panic attacks and anxiety, Nagi begins to build a support network to help her move forward.

Despite struggling with their own challenges, Nagi's young teacher, the grumpy groundskeeper, and a local fisherman all try to help her. For a while, everything on the island is smooth sailing, but Nagi's life is suddenly thrown out of balance when her father makes an unexpected visit. Her father is back to make things right. But what does this mean for Nagi and her family?

We hope you enjoy this touching exploration of family and love.

Starring NIITSU Chise
